

SIOBHAN. Well, we're meant to be writing stories today, so why don't you write about what happened to Wellington?
CHRISTOPHER. OK, I will.

9. HOME

ED. Christopher I'm , your mother's died. SQ: 11
She's had a heart attack.
It wasn't expected.
CHRISTOPHER. What kind of heart attack?
ED. I don't know what kind of heart attack. Now isn't the moment
Christopher to be asking questions like that.
CHRISTOPHER. It was probably an aneurysm. LQ: 16
ED. I'm sorry Christopher, I'm really sorry. SQ: 12
Button PR: 10

10. STREET

Mrs. Shears' house is assembled.

SIOBHAN. "That evening I went round to Mrs. Shears' house and knocked on the and waited for her to answer it." Watch Christopher SQ: 13
Mrs. Shears answers her door. She is drinking a cup of tea.
MRS. SHEARS. What are you doing here?
CHRISTOPHER. I wanted to come and tell you that I didn't kill Wellington. And also I want to find out who killed him.
MRS. SHEARS. Christopher, I really don't think I want to see you right now. LQ: 17
CHRISTOPHER. Do you know who killed Wellington? SQ: 14
MRS. SHEARS. If you don't go now I will call the police again. PR: 11